Chapter 1 by Megan Nowaski

Once upon a time there was an evil Queen named Jadis who shot electricity out of her stick and loved to stay on her mattress most of the day and eat hot dogs. She had three daughters one was just her step-daughter. The names of Jadis's kids were named Claudia and Ashlynn, and her step-daughter was named Eve but her step-sisters called her awful names. Eve used to work at a bakery in America that made gingerbread men, but when her dad died she had to move to England to live with Jadis and work for her instead. One day Eve was working around the house trying to get every piece of furniture so shiny that Jadis could see her reflection. After she was done cleaning Jadis came downstairs to see what she had done but Jadis had told her "you disgust me you don't clean I can't see anything you filthy rat why do you even work for me?" "Ah wait I know because you do it for free." Eve went to speak but stopped herself. She was heartbroken and just wanted to get away but couldn't. Eve wanted advice but she didn't have many friends but this one boy, his name was Tyler he loved baseball and fixed... to be continued.....
